Duration of the Project	Duration and Implementation: The activity will start on March 2021 until end of July 2021(See attached schedule)
	From: March 2021 start	To: July 2021 Termination
Brief Description of the Project/ Program:	The Youth Formation Program Unit is a youth-serving unit under the School Governance Operations Division of the Department of Education responsible in values formation of the learners. Its goal is to “empower Filipino children and youth who are responsible, hardworking, enterprising, preserving, value-driven and culturally-rooted equipped with world-class skills and values such as MakaDiyos, MakaTao, MakaBansa and Makakalikasan.” Using the social media as a medium in implementing the program for Project E.C.H.O. (Every Child Has Opportunity) this will be an advantage in terms of access and availability of participants. Educational campaign is seen as one of the effective ways to develop awareness of the youth. With the digital rise happening now and with the strong utilization of the youth in the different social media platforms, it is important that we exploit its usage by delivering live/taped discussions of topics and in addressing concerning the studentry issues and concerns.
Objectives:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. To allow easy access and communication among student leaders and teacher advisers in terms of the delivery of topics 2. To create a public social sphere where anybody can contribute to the discussions and be heard. 3. To address issues and concerns concerning the students and teachers in the implementation of YFP programs and projects
Persons Involved:	SPG/SSG Student leaders Teacher Advisers
Expected Output/Result or Targets:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. To increase youth awareness of their roles in upholding the four core values; 2. To produce online platform through Project E.C.H.O. that will discuss relevant topics centered in the core values:the MakaDiyos, Makakalikasan, Makatao and Makabansa; and 3. To strengthen the implementation of YFP programs in schools
