Chief, Curriculum and Implementation Division

All Others Concerned

1. DepEd Order No. 76, s.2011 underscored the adoption and implementation of the Learning Resources Management and Development System (LRMDS) which is supported by guidelines and process documents for all sub-systems, a quality assurance framework, standards and specifications (e.g., educational, technical, intellectual property rights, accessibility, metadata), and training programs.
2. Consequently, a Division Memorandum dated February 9, 2016 was released for the organization/creation of a School Learning Resource Committee (SLRC) that will serve as the quality assurance team to ensure the smooth and sustainable implementation of the LRMDS.
3. However, it has been observed through the learning resources indorsed to the Division Office that some schools have not empowered their SLRC in the quality assurance of materials. Moreover, it has been noted that the LR process is not properly followed.
4. Anent this, this Office, through the CID-LRMS, requests all schools to revive/reconstitute their respective SLRC to ensure that all learning materials shall correctly observe the LR process.
5. All schools are advised to submit to this Office the composition of their revived/reconstituted SLRC, indicating members for the following focus areas:
 - a. Content
 - b. Language
 - c. Technical Specifications (including IPR)
6. Schools are also encouraged to create their own pool of illustrators and graphic designers to ensure that learning resources in the division shall use original and copyright-free illustrations and images.
